

PARTNERSHIP POLICY

- Joint efforts through collaboration are important for the company to improve processes and develop innovative approaches.
- Partnerships are handled and managed with a process-based approach.
- The effectiveness of collaborative work is monitored, and it is ensured that such collaborative work provides added value to both parties.
- Mutual transparency and accountability is ensured during relationship.
- The satisfaction and expectations of the collaboration partners are considered as strategic inputs.
- In addition to existing partnerships, a network is formed to look for potential partnerships.