

METAL POLICY

Metal foreign materials' control is in place under physical hazards, as required by our company's food safety system.

Therefore metal detectors and magnetic bar systems are integrated in different production lines depending on the product type. Furthermore, raw materials that pose a risk are checked and controlled for metal foreign materials as a part of material acceptance process.